Each Labour Council can nominate a representative to sit on the AFL Executive Council who sits on their Executive and whose union is affiliated to both their Labour Council and the Alberta Federation of Labour.

Further nominations can be made from the floor of the convention; however, the person nominated must be a member of the Executive of the nominating Labour Council, a member of a local union, branch or lodge affiliated to that Labour Council and to the Alberta Federation of Labour. The convention as a whole shall then vote in accordance with 1.6.3 d) and f) of the Constitution.
